Alignment from grid in TIRF images

AIM: Align two channels from TIRF acquisition projected onto a single sensor

Input: Image of Grid as a reference. Image to align.

Description: Grid Images are split by a predefined ROI, prealigned and then automatically aligned by landmark detection. The alignment parameters are then transferred to experimental images which are treated in batch processing.

Output: